THE LODGES.

Beavers' Smoker.
A continual round of pleasure is the experience of Beavers in Albuquerque. The smoker in the Beavers' fraternal home Thursday evening at which the number numbered some two hundred, was a notable gathering in the barracks that promises to set the standard for even greater future events. Music and artistic banter and talk, with the excellent indulgence of the members, and certainly of the inviolate stars, contributed to make the Beavers' another successful affair.

Joyful Jubilee.

A joyful jubilee, lasting fifteen days, begins Monday, and a week is the Beaver's carnival time with joyful, jiving, jostling games and races in the judiciary of jangling, jibbering, jostling, jostling, jostling, just the jostle joy one needs to make jaded spirits into justification of duty again.

Woodmen Circle Initiate.

Six ladies were initiated into the mysteries of woodcraft in the Woodmen Circle, Cottonwood Grove No. 2, Thursday evening at the meeting of the girls in Old Fellows' hall. The examination of the prospective initiates by the drill team under the direction of Mrs. Tourtellot was splendidly executed. An elaborate beauty in the near future is planned by the successors of the Circle.

Ball in Masonic Temple.

The grand ball in the new Masonic temple next Friday evening is the event that has kept the members of the Eastern Star and their possible guests in a state of joyous anticipation for these many months since the construction of this splendid edifice was begun. As the initial function the Eastern Star ball will be the prelude to a grand series of social chapters in the temple that will probably be continued through several generations of Albuquerqueans, as the future growth of the city or the ravages of time can by no wise lessen the majesty or splendor of this monument to New Mexico masons.

NEW MEXICO SOCIETY

Social Affairs from Various Towns.

CLOVIS.

Mrs. Long of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the guest this week of Mrs. L. P. Spalding, who moved this week to their future home in Texas. Yesterday music was furnished by Prof. Hoenning and Mr. Laubach. Punch was served at intervals during the evening. About 35 couples enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Davis' hospitality.

Mrs. Bittner entertained the whilst early Friday afternoon at the Clovis Quarters. A profusion of flowers and decorations were used in the decorations in the reception room and dining room. Mrs. Henry Coats won the prize. After the game an elegant two-course luncheon was served and the club adjourned to meet two weeks later with Miss Sadie Carlson.

Artesia.

Miss Annie and Miss Mary Thornton last Tuesday entertained as their guests Miss Eleanor Griffith and Mr. Otto Therneau, well known Denver people.
